

Privacy notice

Personal data collected

In the context of providing consultancy services in open-source intelligence and informational due diligence, the following data may be collected:

Sensitive personal data as defined in Article 3, section VI of the LFPDPPP are not collected.

- Full name and identification data of the client
- Contact details: email, phone, address
- Information related to the engagement: name or description of the subject of analysis, declared purpose and supporting documentation provided by the client

Purposes of processing

Your personal data are used for the following necessary purposes:

- Formalize and execute the contractual service relationship
- Issue digital tax receipts (CFDI)
- Comply with applicable legal and tax obligations
- Communication related to the contracted engagement

Data transfers

Your personal data will not be transferred to third parties without your express consent, except for cases provided in Article 37 of the LFPDPPP, including requests from competent authorities.

ARCO rights

You have the right to Access, Rectify, Cancel or Object to the processing of your personal data. To exercise these rights, send your request to contacto@nydra.org indicating your full name, the data you want to exercise your right over and a copy of your official identification.

Your request will be processed within a maximum period of 20 business days.

Changes to the privacy notice

Any modification to this notice will be notified through nydra.org. The date of last update is indicated at the end of this document.

Last updated: April 2026.

© 2026 Nydra.

Last updated: April 2026.